

The International Napoleonic Society and the Napoleonic Historical Society

A Virtual Joint Napoleonic Congress

August 13-15 and August 21-22, 2021

Program

Friday, 13 August (all times Eastern Time Zone)

- 09:45 Opening Remarks by Presidents Edna Markham and J. David Markham
- 10:00 Peter Hicks, France, New Research on Witnesses of Napoleon at St Helena
- 10:30 Rafe Blaufarb, USA, Nationalized Properties and the Politics of State Finance During the First Year of the Revolution
- 11:00 William Chew, Belgium, Middle-Class Romanticism and American Exceptionalism: Washington Irving in France, 1804-1805
- 11:30 Paul Chamberlain, UK, A Traitorous Correspondence: General Edouard Simon and the Conspirators of Odiham
- 12:00 Doina Harsanyi, USA, Criminal Justice and Legitimacy in Occupied Lands
- 1:00 Tatiana Kosykh, Russian Federation, French Occupation of Andalucia 1810-1812 through the eyes of the British soldiers
- 1:30 Ferdi Wöber, Austria, The Altenburg Peace Conference from August 18 to September 26, 1809: A Report Day by Day
- 2:00 Alexander Mikaberidze, USA, The Eclipse of Austerlitz: The Allied Headquarters on the Eve of the Battle of Austerlitz

Saturday, 14 August

- 10:00 Jan Bosteels, Belgium, The Lotus Flower and the Palm Tree: the Parallel Lives and Work of Baron Antoine Dubois and Baron Dominique Larrey
- 10:30 Jerome Beaucour, France, Recent Results of Archaeological Research on the Site of the Bérézina Crossing in 1812 by Napoleon's Army

11:00 – 12:00 PM Margaret Rodenberg, USA, Michelle Cameron, USA, and Sandra Gulland, Canada Panel: Napoleon in Fiction: Jews, Blacks, Women, and Muslims

12:30 David Serero, USA, Performing Napoleon on Theatrical Stages

1:00 Jonas De Neff, Belgium, Remembering Armand de Caulaincourt: The Ethics of a French Diplomat (1807-1813)

1:30 Cormac O'Brien, Ireland, Napoleon, the Pope and the Canova Casts

Sunday, 15 August

10:00 Alasdair White, Belgium, Why St Helena, Why Not the Yardarm?

10:30 Cormac O'Brien, Ireland, Napoleon, the Pope and the Canova Casts

11:00 Jeanne Ruderman, USA, In His Own Words: Napoleon's Thoughts on St Helena

11:30 Marian Hochel, Czech Republic, Empire Style between Art and Propaganda? Reflections on the Napoleon's Imperial Representation on the 200th Anniversary of His Death

12:00 Luke Dalla Bona, Ecuador, St Helena Items in the Collection of the Museo Napoleónico in Havana, Cuba

12:30 Glenda Pérez, Spain, Twenty Faces of the Eagle: A Catalogue of Napoleonic Images in the Painting Collection of the Napoleonic Museum of Havana

1:00 J. David Markham, Canada, St Helena, Death and Legend Items in the David Markham Collection

1:30 Betje Klier, USA, Hippolyte Bellangé's Quintessential and Enduring Role in Illustrating the Napoleonic Myth: Two Deification Images

2:00 Wayne Hanley, USA, Napoleon's Expressed Opinions on His Marshals While on St Helena

Saturday 21 August

10:30 Terry Crowdy, UK, Fashion of Women Camp Followers in Napoleon's Army

11:00 Andrey Mitrofanov, Russian Federation, The Barbet Movement in the Times of the French Revolution (1792-1802)

11:30 Erik Lewis, USA, 'Sans pain: The Emigration of Citoyenne Cazeneuve, veuve Beaufort

12:00 Victoria Vladimirovna, Russian Federation, Strangers Among Their Own: The Conflicts of the British and Spaniards During the Defense of Toulon in 1793

1:00 Michael Wenzel, Austria, After Aspern/Essling and Wagram: The 40 Military Hospitals in Vienna under French Occupation in 1809

1:30 Xavier Riaud, France, Napoleon Was Just a Man: His Diseases

2:00 Mark Billings, Canada, Napoleon: The Young Revolutionary

Sunday 22 August

10:30 Ivane Menteshashvili, Republic of Georgia, Born of Revolution

11:00 Matej Čapo, Slovakia, Napoleonic Wars in the Historical Memory of Bratislava

11:30 Derek Byrne, Ireland, Napoleon and the Irish Patriots He Inspired: 1798-1916

12:00 Sylvie Kleinman, Ireland, Maker of a Modern State? France and Ireland in 1815, comparative perspectives on the Napoleonic legacy

12:30 Nicolas Stark, USA, Trampling Shamrocks: Violence & the French Invasion of Ireland, 1798

1:00 Alexander Grab, USA, State and Society in Napoleonic Italy

1:30 Kevin Rodriguez, USA, Between Three Eagles: A Personal Perspective on the Influence of the Napoleonic Legacy on Mexico and the United States of America

2:00 Closing Remarks